St. Albert Voters Boost PC Majority

Federal Election '72 is all over with. All that's left to do now is tabulate a few minor late returns from isolated polling divisions located in the northern section of Canada and at this time of writing, there appears to be several 'squeakers' where recounts have been indicated.

Despite these minor housekeeping chores, the overall minority government situation remains, both old line parties clutching a near-even number of seats and the balance of power rests in the hands of the New Democrats and Socialists.

At this stage of the political contest, nobody knows what will happen. There have been several predictions made but these are strictly speculative. One conjecture that reappears frequently is that Prime Minister Trudeau will not go into the House with a minority government and that he will not court the NDP leader David Lewis for the backing of his 30-plus seats . . . and also Trudeau will never consent to a coalition. If all these predictions have any validity, that leaves Progressive Conservative leader Robert Stanfield heading a minority government. Mr. Stanfield Monday night told Canada that he is prepared to form the next government. Governor-General Roland Michener may ask Mr. Stanfield to do so.

Statements made by NDP leader David Lewis and Social Credit leader Real Caouette indicate that they're both prepared to sit with a minority government and lend their support to "positive and constructive legislation." Of course everyone knows what will happen if and when a non-confidence vote is called before the 'Shaky House.' Which brings us to what many political pundits are predicting right now . . . "that Canadians will be going back to the polls within the coming 12 months." One fearless forecast claims that another general election will be held in February of 1973 while another puts the date at sometime in June.

Although the rest of Canada stands in an undecided position, Alberta voters were not undecided in this Federal contest . . . out of 19 Alberta seats, 19 Progressive Conservatives were elected and while doing so, toppled two Liberal Cabinet Ministers and registered some of the largest majority votes in the whole of Canada.

In St. Albert, representing one of the largest concentration of voters lying within the Edmonton West Constituency, almost 80 per cent of eligible voters cast ballots on election day. Out of the 325 polling divisions within the Edmonton West Constituency, 34 were located in St. Albert and immediate area. Of the 34 St. Albert polling divisions, 29 were urban polls while five were St. Albert rural polls. Three of the rural St. Albert polling divisions were located in the Winterton School, one in the Trail-Inn Auto Court while the fifth rural poll was located in the St. Albert Community Hall for lack of a better location.

With all 326 Edmonton West polling divisions reported, the final figures show the following results: Hurtig, Mel (Liberal) 21,054 Lambert, Marcel (PC) 29,866; McLeod, Don (SC)

If there was anybody in St. Albert more excited and jubilant than Lena Post over Marcel Lambert's victory, he would be hard to find. "I actually bawled for a minute when I first realized that Marcel had such a grand majority, and that he'd won in St. Albert this time," she said. She poses, pointing to the proof, for son Victor, at the St. Albert headquarters.

Hotel General Contract Awarded to Local Firm

The general contract for Sam Shapiro's St. Albert Motor Inn (1972) Ltd. project was awarded this week to Harsim Construction Ltd. 18 Muir Drive, St. Albert. The local construction firm submitted the lowest of four bids received by Mr. Shapiro, president of the proposed hotel complex.

The Harsim Construction Ltd. bid of $810,000 will cover the entire construction phase of the project, including parking facilities. In an interview with Mr. Shapiro, he said that he was satisfied with the bid from the general contractor and expects to be able to furnish and equip his hotel at the anticipated figure of $1.5 million.

"Of course," he said, "that all depends how lucky I am to get good prices on furniture and equipment to make my hotel a top-notch facility."

Mr. Gus Simonsmeier, secretary-treasurer for Harsim Construction Ltd. told The Gazette the firm will be moving onto the site, at the corner of St. Albert Trail and Bell Avenue, Wednesday or Thursday of this week.

Mr. Simonsmeier also said that his firm has been successful in awarding sub-contracts to local firms. When asked whether he had any doubts about delivering the new hotel by the June 1973 deadline date he said, "a lot will depend on the kind of winter we get, but I think, without trouble, we should be able to make it."

As was announced in a previous issue of The Gazette, Mr. Shapiro is presently conducting a 'hotel-naming contest' and to date he has been flooded with name suggestions.

Mr. Shapiro is gratified with the interest shown by residents in naming the new hotel complex but has added a proviso whereby only one submission will be accepted from that person.

"Otherwise," Mr. Shapiro says, I feel that it's not fair to accept more than one submission from the same person."

He did say, however, that it was quite alright for every member of a family to make submissions. Mr. Shapiro also said that he will hand all submissions to The Gazette for publication after the winner or winners have been awarded the $100 prize.

LaBelle Elected School Chairman

Chairman of St. Albert No. 3 Public School Board since 1964, Dave Fraser, stepped down Wednesday night at the regular board meeting and agreed to complete his term of office in the less demanding position of a trustee. Elected chairman to replace Mr. Fraser was trustee Don LaBelle, a vocal and active member of the board since 1967. No committee changes are contemplated.

Mr. Fraser was first elected to the Public School Board in 1963, the following year he was elected chairman, a position he has retained every since. During his nine-year tenure, Mr. Fraser was instrumental in bringing about many changes in the Public School system here in St. Albert, also saw the entire Albert LaCombe School grow through its various stages of construction to the completed educational facility it is today. Dave was also one of the originators of the Joint-Use Agreement now functioning in St. Albert and proving to be of sufficient importance to attract national attention.

One of the last items of

business dealt with at last Wednesday's meeting was the question of enlarging the Albert LaCombe school grounds and the landscaping of same. The Board approved unanimously that this project be undertaken immediately which involves clearing of some trees and general landscaping. All members of the Board agreed that a perimeter of trees will be preserved as a shelter belt and landscaped to beautify the school grounds.

UCW all set for Fall Fair

On Saturday, November 4, the St. Albert United Church Women will present a "Fall Fair and Bazaar" in the Community Hall from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. General convenors are Mrs. Barb Husband and Mrs. Olive Tookey. The bazaar upstairs will feature stuffed toys, Christmas gift items as well as a large selection of home baking and mince meat.

Orders will be taken for the UCW Cookbook, now in its second printing.

There will be a fish pond for the youngsters and a White Elephant table with good used toys and books.

No admission is charged for the bazaar, babysitting will be provided, and it is all in a "Country Fair" setting.

Downstairs, also from 11 to 3, will be a cafeteria-style luncheon with a varied menu to suit all tastes. Hearty country stew, delicious cold plates, children's favorite hot dogs and homemade pies and cake.

A strong turnout of sports fans were delighted with the basketball exhibition by the Harlem Nationals at Vital Grandis Gym Friday night, when they went against the St. Albert High All-Stars. Fine action shot was taken by Frank Smith of 99 Glenhaven Crescent.

Local Council Fields Six AUMA Resolution

Of the seven resolutions submitted to the Alberta Urban Municipalities Association convention held in Lethbridge last week, St. Albert got six on the order paper and voluntarily withdrew the seventh. Mayor Ray Gibbon, heading the St. Albert delegation made up of all six councillors and the chief administrator, registered complete satisfaction with their mission to the southern city.

Resolutions submitted by the St. Albert Town Council delegates were briefly spelled out as follows:

1. UIC-CP Act Amendment - This resolution deals with a proposed amendment to the Unemployment Insurance Act relating to the Canada Pension Act whereby an employee who has not claimed unemployment insurance during his working career and is faced with the benefits provided by the Canada Pension should be paid a bonus in lieu of the unused unemployment insurance credit he has accumulated over the years.

2. Millard Room Act - This resolution deals with a proposed amendment to have the age limit reduced from 16 years to 14.

3. Condominium Proper - Continued on page 2

Mrs. Smith, seated in her living room, heard the back door slam. Thinking it was her young son, she called: "I'm in here, darling. I've been waiting for you."

There was no answer for a moment, then a strange voice faltered: "I'm sorry but I'm not your regular milkman."

6. Local Authorities Board Act - This resolution is designed to enable the Local Authorities Board access to expert temporary assistance when needed.

7. Sale of Fireworks - This resolution was withdrawn in view of legislation presently enacted on both the provincial and federal levels.

Taking part in the four day convention held in Lethbridge October 24 to 27 were: Mayor Ray Gibson and Mrs. Gibson; Councilor and Mrs. Kambouroff; Councilor and Mrs. deBruin; Councilor and Mrs. Lukay; Councilor and Mrs. Hudson, Councilors John Bakker and Rod Thronson also chief administrator Dan O'Connell.

Marcel has a victory smile as he poses with St. Albert headquarter workers, Kathy Lutzak, left and Lena Post. Ernie Jamison says "Well done" - we're a happy crowd tonight" as he congratulates Mr. Lambert on the win. Photo was at the Sahara restaurant where Edmonton-West supporters gathered Monday night, including many from St. Albert. Marcel received a tremendous ovation when he came with his campaign chairman, Roy Watson, and spoke to the crowd. NDP John Packer was the only candidate from the riding to drop in and offer his congratulations, and said he had predicted Mr. Lambert's win. Mr. Packer's son was with him. Photo by Vic Post.

Badminton

Winners of the novelty doubles badminton tournament at St. Albert High last week were Joan Green and Alan Musto. The gym is not available at the high school this Thursday, but play goes as usual tonight at Vital Grandin gym.

In the "Beefs" department this week are a complaint from an out of town shopper on Grandin Mall, that such a fine facility should have a public rest room; a call from a local woman who wished there could be a poll at the Sturgeon Hospital for people unable to use the taxi service provided for Monday's election; and a chap who felt that a local hockey team of middle age players, some he said, who were volunteer laborers when the arena was being built, should have ice time ahead of city teams, on the same fee basis.

The people at Sir George Simpson school report that there will not be a pre-Christmas Book Fair, but plans are underway to hold one in late winter. The Fair last year proved extremely popular with St. Albert residents, and people interested can be saving books for the exchange section.

About 150 people took in the wind-up banquet for boys in St. Albert's minor ball program, catered by Trio Catering in the Community Hall, Roger Gariepy, chairman of the Lions Sports Association acted as master of ceremonies and trophy presentations followed the banquet. Crests for league leaders in the Mosquito Division were not able to be presented on the program as coach Richard Schuchard was not able to attend. The Minor Ball program is supported by the Lions Club, The Knights of Columbus and the Town.

4 ten-hour days?

A labor-management struggle over the future shape of the work week is in the making says John Schreiner in The Financial Post. What is in doubt is whether employees will tend to line up with their unions -- or with management. The gut issue in the move toward a four-day work week, should the eight-hour day be lengthened? The unions generally oppose a longer work day, wanting fewer working hours and fewer days. Certainly the so-called compressed workweek is snowballing in Canada. Montreal consultants Samson Belair Riddell Stead Inc. have just published a second report on the compressed week. A year ago, the consulting firm estimates there were about 25 Canadian examples of the compressed week.

Proposed Coliseum Termed

The new Edmonton Coliseum is being designed to allow diversification and multi-purpose use of the entire facility. The pillar-free building will allow excellent viewing for the 1972

British Commonwealth Games from any location within the entire 16,000 seat structure.

With the added features such as dining and lounge facilities, the coliseum will undoubtedly draw many major entertainment attractions to Edmonton as well as the various concerts. The building will be adequate for circuses, the annual Rodeo, Boat and Trailer Show, car shows, trade shows, and many other events.

Few Canadians

Use Postal Code

Canada's new six-digit "alpha-numeric" postal code is an unfamiliar animal to most Canadians and is getting mixed response from people who have already encountered it. Large corporations like it. Secretaries detest it. The average citizen doesn't use it. These findings were gathered by the Post Office Department in a recent survey.

J. G. Fultz, post office director of coding and mechanization, estimated 52% of all mail handled in Ottawa now carries the six-digit designation. Although totals were not released, observers think that the usage rate in the three Prairie Provinces varies between 20% - 30%. Postal codes were implemented in Manitoba a year ago and in Saskatchewan and Alberta this spring. The usage rate in most European countries averages 60 per cent.

An Alaskan who was getting tired of hearing a Texan complain about his state now being only the second largest in the United States told him: "If you don't keep quiet, we'll split in half and then you'll be number three."

exhibit space on the other levels of the coliseum. With the extensive commissary and large kitchen facilities, the building could handle any major convention.

The proposed budget for this building is $9,880,000. It is planned that all construction work will be tendered with Alberta based contractors invited to submit bids for all the components of the building. Announcement of an early tender call for the structural framing of the building and construction management of the remaining trades will be made shortly. It is anticipated that approximately 18 months will be required to complete the building and furnish it.

Local girl wins in sewing contest

Natalie Hapchyn, 11 year old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Peter Hapchyn of 36 Glenmore Crescent, was the Alberta-B.C. division winner in this year's cross Canada Stylemaker contest, sponsored by Singer Sewing Machine Company.

Natalie received a Golden Touch and Sew sewing machine, a set of scissors and a five-day trip to Montreal.

A Grade seven student at St. George Simpson School, Natalie aspires to be a criminal lawyer, and in addition takes part in a number of activities, sewing for herself, making marionettes and stuffed animals, enjoys sports and study in psychology and French language.

Mrs. Anne Hapchyn accompanied Natalie to Montreal and both enjoyed the trip immensely.

Natalie Hapchyn in the "Junior Miss" division of the Singer Stylemaker models the outfit that made her the Alberta-B.C. finalist. The pant suit was judged striking, colorful and practical, with good detail work. The shirt is styled to be worn as a separate midi dress or as the pant topper. Natalie used a Simplicity pattern, and her outfit cost $19.10.

The demand for primary minerals is expected to increase fourfold by the year 2,000. The United States then will need 7.5 billion tons of iron ore, 1.5 billion tons of aluminum ore, 1 billion tons of phosphate ore, and 100 million tons of copper metal.

Platinum coins circulated in Russia between 1828 and 1845, National Geographic says. The 3-, 6-, and 12-ruble coins proved impractical because the price of the rare metal fluctuated too widely.

For the past four years it has been my privilege to direct St. Albert's Community Choir, The St. Albert Singers. Comets upset Eagles in exhibition play

St. Albert Comets scored three goals in the final period to defeat the visiting Westlock Eagles 8-5 Friday night in St. Albert.

Comets dominated the first period against the youthful Eagles and took an easy 5-1 lead.

Assistant captain Al Lalante scored the opening goal at 3:45 on a pass from Doug Bell. Harvey Kirkland made it 2-0 at 6:25 with captain Ted Rogers assisting. Wally Munson and Doug Knisely scored less than a minute apart to give the Comets a commanding 4-0 lead.

Eagles got on the scoreboard at 12:33 when veteran Len Garon scored from the point. Comets took a 5-1 lead at 15:14 on a goal by Tom Ramshaw.

In the second period Comets took a nose dive and allowed Westlock to score three easy goals. Clem Fagnan, Wayne Rimmer and Pete Provincial all found the mark for the Eagles. With two periods of play, Comets lead was reduced to just one goal.

Comets started the final period on the same note as they finished the second and Garon scored his second goal to tie the game 5-5. The goal came while Comets forward Andre Contant was sitting out an interference penalty.

Captain Ted Rogers left alone in front of the Eagle net, back-handed a shot by goalie Vern Proulx to put Comets into a 6-5 lead. The goal came at 14:08. At 18:16 ex-Golden Bear, Tom Devaney scored from close in to give St. Albert a two goal lead. With the seconds remaining Doug Bell rounded out the scoring, giving Comets an 8-5 win.

Teachers blast Power Kegs

Two goal performances each by Ross Johnston, Terry Wisninski, Dan Chugg and Dan Boumeister carried the Teachers to a convincing 11-5 win over defending champs, Belcourt Power Kegs in the opening game of the St. Albert Men's Commercial League.

The first period was fairly even with only one goal scored, that by Jake Joly to give Teachers a 1-0 lead. Three consecutive goals by Chugg, Wisninski and Boumeister increased to a 4-0 lead.

Power Kegs appeared to be on their way when in the space of three minutes, Dick Peabody and Chuck Legace scored to make the score 4-2. Power Kegs scored again from the point on a drive from Charlie Gallagher that deflected into the Teachers' net but for some strange reason was disallowed. On the next shift Lorne Wood scored to put the Teachers ahead 5-2.

From then on it was all Teachers as they scored six third period goals.

For the second year in a row Father Jake Joly has scored the opening goal to start the season. "Somebody up their must like him" as the saying goes.

Next league action goes tonight when Premier Esso go against Grandin Gulf at 8:30 p.m. On Thursday the Kinsmen and St. Albert Pharmacy tangle at 10:30.

Winning teams are requested to drop the game sheets off at the St. Albert Sports shop as soon as possible.

FATHER JAKE JOLY

Mistakes prove costly for Junior Bruins

Mental mistakes proved costly for the St. Albert Bruins Sunday as the Fort Saskatchewan Traders chalked up an easy 5-4 win.

Bruin defensemen and forwards took turns losing the puck inside their blue-line to allow the Traders to skate unmolested on Bruin goaltender Brad Rix. Traders must have thought Christmas came early as at least three of the five goals were packaged gifts.

Fort opened the scoring early, when Darryl Tetz scored an unassisted goal with just 2:45 gone in the opening period. They increased the lead to 2-0 when Don Galloway caught the Bruin defense sleeping and walked in on Rix, who had no chance. The goal came at 14:32.

Bruins managed only one shot on goal in the first 15 minutes, but on their second chance, defenseman Greg Hatch unleashed a tremendous shot from the right point that found the mark at 18:00. Bruins appeared to come on but with only six seconds remaining in the period Trader captain Randy Kjenner stole the puck from a Bruin defenseman and drilled a low shot by startled Brad Rix. Traders went into the dressing room with a comfortable 3-1 lead.

Play was rugged in the second period with only one goal being scored, that by Kjenner at 17:34 to give the Fort a 4-1 lead.

Bruin coach Rick Le Lacheur's pep talk between periods must have been well listened to as the boys came out flying in the third period.

Hard-working Craig Neeser tipped in a beautiful pass from centre Jan Kristensen at 4:52 to pull the Bruins to two goals. Bruins then took three stupid penalties within 33 seconds midway through the period to give Fort a two man advantage. Rix came up with three or four excellent saves and while short-handed, speedster Jim McComb intercepted a stray Trader pass and scored on a line shot. Bruins were definitely back in the game, being only one goal down with seven minutes remaining.

Neeser scored his second goal of the game at 16:00 when he again tipped in a goal mouth pass from Doug Ferguson and Greg Hatch.

Bruins and Traders appeared to be going for the tie but a bad clearing pass landed on a Trader stick and a screened shot beat Rix who had no chance. The goal came at 18:35 and gave the Traders an easy 5-4 victory. Bruins are now 0-2 in league play while Traders have a 2-0 record. They upset favored Sherwood Park 6-5 last Wednesday.

Following the game Le Lacheur and Bruin president Ron Yanosik said they were pleased with the club's ability to come from behind, but both were disgusted with the team's performance in the first two periods. Le Lacheur felt some of the players were just going through the motions and changes in the line-up were being considered. Yanosik didn't go along with some of the chippiness and stupid penalties the Bruins were taking.

Bruins will have a couple of practices to work out the problems before they invade Varsity Arena. Saturday night against the U of A Junior Bears. Game time is 8:30 p.m.

Ron Hayter Eyeing CFAB Presidency

Edmonton Alderman Ron Hayter announced today that he will run for President of the Canadian Federation of Amateur Baseball at the annual meeting in Ottawa, November 3 to 5.

He has served on the CFAB executive since 1968, the last two years as vice-president. Bob Lacoursiere, of Saskatoon, president for the past seven years, is not expected to seek re-election.

Hayter stepped down last season as president of The Alberta Baseball Association after serving three consecutive terms. His objectives, if elected, will be to "continue to introduce national championships in all age brackets on a planned basis and to convince Federal authorities of the need for increased travel assistance for teams going to Canadian competitions."

He also said that 21 countries, including Canada, will definitely participate in the 20th World Series of Amateur Baseball, November 15 to December 5, in Nicaragua.

The Sportsmanship Trophy, presented for the first time this year, was awarded to the Ollers, selected as the team showing the most sportsmanship in minor ball leagues. Coach Paul Sheleney, left accepted the trophy from George Weller of the St. Albert Council, Knights of Columbus.

Toronados going

The "Toronados" (lots of wind) hockey team are all set up, having procured the services of Ken Schwartz as coach. Lawrence Wakefield is club president, Andy Kampen is manager and Mel Wakefield, assistant coach.

Danny Bolsvert of D & A Service and Mark MacDonaid of MacDonaid Texaco

Service are sponsoring the team with uniforms. This is reported to be a no-star team, but Johnny Gunn is betting he gets the most points. Evan Morgan will be in goal.

The Toronados are hopeful of challenging such other amateur senior teams as the KC's and the RCMP.

A story of the Poppy and two young men

By Margaret Gray

Alex wondered again why he had come. No one had been surprised when he requested permission to go, but then no-one seemed very interested either. Maybe it was because it was so long ago, and maybe it was because no one wanted to remember any more.

A few years ago a group had gone, but when they came back they hadn't said much. He remembered Pierre saying that it was all ancient history and that no one seemed to remember, or even care. Somehow Alex couldn't quite believe that. It all had to mean something, or all those young men had died for nothing. He had to go, and he had to find out for himself.

The wind roared across Confederation Square, and the clock banged on Parliament Hill. It was always cold in Ottawa in November, even when the sun shone fitfully like today. He heard two reporters discussing how to estimate the crowd. "Let's say somewhere around 700," Alex couldn't help smiling. Seven hundred seemed enough for the press, and yet so pitifully few to Alex. Seven Hundred had come to honor 120,000 Canadian dead! "Last we Forget," he thought bitterly "Hah!"

He found a place on the edge of the Legion group, and noticed how they shivered in the raw wind. Some looked as if they should be anywhere but here at this yearly cenotaph. Most weren't wearing coats, proud to expose their decorations, and some were wearing coats that looked too thin, and their shoes didn't look that sturdy either. But they stood there, and shivered, and honored their comrades. Some tears were not caused by the wind.

The official party arrived, all snug in their limousines. He remembered the last time he had come, and "The Old Soldier" was still Governor-General, and you had only to look at his eyes to know HE remembered. But today it was not "The Old Soldier."

Solemnly the officials went forward and placed their wreaths. He looked long at the Silver Cross Mother. Yes, she remembered. She remembered her two sons did not come back home. But he wondered about the others, the politicians, the diplomats. He felt that they were there to be seen, and to see others. They weren't there for the real purpose. The remembering of the dead seemed incidental.

He watched the ceremony continue. The band played, the wreaths were laid, and fifteen minutes later the officials had scuttled away, and a few people milled around, curious, looking at the poppy wreaths, wondering what it was all about. It was all over for another year. He had to face it -- no one really did remember any more. He suddenly felt weary and unbearably sad.

He was sorry he had come.

He started to walk away from the crowd, but turned back slowly for one last look. For some reason they caught his eye. Two youths, maybe sixteen years old, were near the cenotaph, and were looking at the wreaths. Both boys had long hair. One was trying to grow a moustache and beard, and both were wearing jeans. They looked cool too. He wondered if they were students. He was surprised to notice they were wearing poppies. Both boys stood there for a moment talking.

They seemed bewildered as if they really didn't accept what had happened. Then, one boy leaned over, and picked up a pamphlet that had fallen, and he glanced at it uninterestedly. Something seemed to catch his attention. He wordlessly showed it to his friend, pointing something out. And then a strange thing happened. He walked over to the cenotaph, and knelt down. He reached up to his lapel, and took his poppy off his coat, and reverently placed it down amongst the array of formal wreaths. The remnants of the crowd stood, silently watching. Then his friend reached up, and he placed his poppy beside it. They moved off and away, and were soon lost in the streets.

The crowd looked stunned. Alex walked back, and looked at the two tiny poppies lying there amidst the splendour of the wreaths, and suddenly the wind blew them, and they fluttered and moved, as if closer together. For the first time since he had died over fifty years ago, Alex had remembered the poppies he had seen fluttering in the wind at Ypres, in Belgium, before he closed his eyes to this world forever.

As he moved off quickly the wind dropped the pamphlet the boy had read, at his feet. He picked it up, and read it, and here he realized that, like everything else, even remembering had to change. But it was alright. There was a message being passed on. It was more significant than remembrance alone. He read at the pamphlet again, and he felt finally at peace, at last. There it was -- "IF YOU CAN'T REMEMBER -- THINK"

Thank You

Our sincere thanks to the St. Albert Fire Department who responded to a call to our home and to so many others for their help, concern and prayers.

Local Kinsmen have strong representation at District 4 Council

Mr. George Irving of Galt, Ontario, national vice-president of the Association of Kinsmen Clubs attended the Kinsmen District Four fall council meeting held in Red Deer, October 27 and 28. Delegates from 63 Kinsmen clubs in District Four (Alberta and north-eastern British Columbia) attended the meeting, at which time Governor Bill Hite of St. Albert reviewed the District program for the '72-'73 Kins year. National vice president Irving explained the overall policies and national program adopted for all Canadian Kinsmen clubs at its recent national convention held in Calgary. Attending the meeting along with District Governor Hite was the majority of his executive: Dave Stewart, coordinator; Erling Wingquist, treasurer and Ron Levang, public relations, all from St. Albert, along with Neil Campbell, secretary, from Sherwood Park.

St. Albert Kinsmen Club members who made the trip were president Bob Myrthue, director Elroy Haight, past District Governor Don Sinclair, Fred Calkins, MacDonald, Ken Porter, Gerry Rayburn, Neil Stewart, George Wilkie and Doug Woods.

The Association of Kinsmen Clubs is composed of some 15,000 members in over 470 clubs throughout Canada and to date has donated more than 40 million dollars to service work. On February 20, 1970, "The Kinsmen National Institute on Mental Retardation" located on 1.5 acres of land at York University, was officially opened celebrating Kinsmen's 50 years of service to Canada. Clubs across Canada donated over $400,000 towards this very deserving national project. The Institute plays a major role in the training and preparation of personnel for work in the mental retardation field.

St. Albert Kinsman Dave Grant says the club is grateful for the support the community has given Kins projects, enabling them to participate in this outstanding project.

Two of the objects of Kins are to train their members in modern business and professional methods and ethics, and to carry on service work in their communities. Young men between the age of 21 and 40 desiring information on joining the Kinsmen Club of St. Albert may contact Pete Davis at 599-6972 or Bob Myrthue at 599-7834.

It's a medal of a drink

Canadian booze does it again. OFC Canadian whisky received the Medaille d'Or in mid-October in Geneva from the authoritative Monde Selection. The whisky received a total of 87 points in the "Grain Alcohols" section in an analysis consisting of chemical, taste, and commercial-presentation tests. This eight year old blend was introduced by Canadian Schenley Distilleries Ltd, Montreal, in 1971. And the award bolsters the contention of many experts that Canadian whisky is gaining increasing acceptance among international drinkers and testers. The Monde Selection jury consisted of five people chosen from science, industry, and the wine and spirit trades. Their deliberations are under the chairmanship of a notary. Any product obtaining an 80 per cent rating, by the jury receives a gold medal; those receiving at least 70 per cent get a silver; and any product with 60 per cent gets a bronze. Monde Selection offices are in Brussels but selections are made in a different country each year.

Garrett - Medisky Wedding

A lovely fall wedding was solemnized at Chalmers United Church, Edmonton on October 7, 1972. Rev. T. Koberg and Rev. G. Hutchison conducted the service uniting Peggy Medisky, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Medisky of Edmonton, and Jack Garrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Garrett of St. Albert.

The bride was lovely in a floor length gown of white polyester crepe, featuring a train falling from the shoulders, and styled with empire waistline. The bodice was accented by a lace-trimmed mandarin collar, with panels of matching lace leading from the shoulders to the centre waist in V shape. Her waistlength veil was held by a headpiece of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of red roses, daisies and baby's breath.

Joanne Medisky was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Jan Kenny and Terry Greenough. All wore floor-length gowns of red velvet, accented with white lace, and complimented by floral headpieces of white daisies. They carried baskets of daisies and baby's breath.

The groom was attended by best man Steve Hughes and groomsmen David Garrett and Mike Lenny. Ring bearer was Ian Garrett.

Wedding music was played by Gaye Metta and Mr. Dick Leggett, soloist, who sang "Wedding Prayer" during the service, and "Because" during signing of the register. The young couple left the church through an honor guard from the Edmonton Strutters Drum Corps. Both were members of the corps.

Following the ceremony a reception and wedding dance for 130 guests was held at the Wellington Community Hall.

The bride's mother received her guests in a gown of blue polyester crepe with matching coat, while the groom's mother chose a blue floor length gown of satin and chiffon, with a matching floor length vest. Both gowns were accented with corsages of red roses and white carnations.

Mr. Harvey Greenough was M.C. and Mr. Harry Litvoet gave the toast to the bride, to which the groom replied.

Special guests were Mr. Wm. Dean, great grandfather of the bride and Mrs. A. Breckick of R.C., and Mr. and Mrs. J. Garrett of Claresholm, all grandparents of the groom. Guests were from Calgary, Red Deer, Sedgewick, Eldorado, Sask., and Vancouver B.C.

The young couple left for a wedding trip to Montana and are now making their home in Edmonton.

Around Town

Twenty-five students in the "Provincial Politics" option course at Sir George Simpson School, and their teacher, Jim Morrison, attended the afternoon session of the Alberta Legislature yesterday. In introducing them to the Assembly, their M.L.A., Ernie Jamison, mentioned that Sir George Simpson had been a superintendent for the Northwest Traders and Hudson Bay Co., later amalgamated into the Hudson Bay Company. Sir George served in this capacity for 40 years, prior to his death in 1860.

Anne Kampen of the St. Albert Community League reports that a good crowd had a wonderful time at the Halloween Festival held at the hall Friday evening, when about 50 percent came in costume, and prizes were awarded by a panel of judges for the best ones. The jolly green giant, the Lady and the Tramp, a cave man and woman (Denis Belanger and his wife) were some that stood out, and Eileen Gillard as the Easter Bunny was one of the winners.

families, held a masquerade dance last Saturday and entertained a crowd of about 95 local and visiting club members. Among visiting clubs were the Gypsy Wheels and The Overlanders. Prizes were awarded for most original costumes, most humorous costumes and other categories plus a door prize. The Sixty-Niners enjoyed a trailer trip during the May 24th long weekend through the Badlands of Drumheller. Election of officers for the coming year will be held in December, at which time plans will be formulated for 1973. The president is Herb Brige; vice-president, Harold Jensen, secretary, Harold Kay and treasurer is Wilf Langan.

The Lashope Family: Shawna (8), John (9), Mark (12), Debbie (13), Glen (14), Karen (16), and Linda (17), of Calgary, have contributed more than 4,000 hours of volunteer work in nursing homes and hospitals, entertaining and visiting patients. They are also extremely active in their schools, sports, and a variety of community activities.

Barbara Palm (17) of Rimbey, provides a fine example of community involvement. She was editor of a student newspaper, member of student council, sang in a school choir, and represented her community on a United Nations tour in New York.

Donald Ouellette (12) of St. Albert saved the lives of three men, at great risk to his own life, during a boating accident. Donald, who has taken Red Cross swimming and water safety courses, remained calm in the face of panic among the men he rescued.

Lana Pearl Spreeman (17) of Olds, does not let a severe handicap interfere with her outstanding contributions to her community. She is active in many demanding sports, helps with her family farm chores, and is a member of a choir and a band.

Cathy Bluda (16) of Grassland helped save the lives of three victims of a traffic accident. Cathy volunteered to escort three injured persons to hospital; en route, she applied mouth-to-mouth resuscitation continually to a woman who could not breathe on her own.

Donna Blumhagen (12) of Bremner is the eldest of three girls in a family without a mother. Donna takes care of the cooking and cleaning and minds her younger sisters; nonetheless, she maintains good marks at school, and participates in sports.

Debbie Tittsworth (17) of Didsbury saved three small children she was babysitting by removing them from the house when she discovered a fire. Her prompt, calm action helped to save the house as well as the children.

We are proud to introduce these courageous and enterprising young Albertans, who recently received Alberta Junior Citizen of the Year awards from The Hon. Dr. J. W. Grant MacEwan, Lieutenant Governor of Alberta. Nominations for awards are made by the readers of Alberta weekly newspapers and winners are honoured guests of the Alberta Weekly Newspaper Association convention. Alberta's independent utility companies, sponsors of the awards, are pleased to have this opportunity to give recognition to youthful leadership and initiative in our Alberta.

Wetaskiwin, Pembina give PC Candidates Wide Majority Vote

Two other federal constituencies in which St. Albert voters played an important role include Pembina to the North and Wetaskiwin which comes up on the western side of our Edmonton West Constituency. As a result of these constitutional divisions, there are residents living within the St. Albert area who voted in either Pembina, Wetaskiwin or Edmonton West. Of course of the bulk of St. Albert voters are enumerated in the Edmonton West Riding.

As we reported before, all 19 seats in Alberta were captured by Progressive Conservative candidates and Pembina and Wetaskiwin were not different. In Pembina out of 315 polling divisions reported of a total of 322, the following tallies showed a decisive victory for the Progressive Conservative candidate, Dan Hollands:

Borger, John (Liberal) - 9,585; Davidson, Sam (WCP) 413; Hennessey, Tom (NDP) 5,565; Hollands, Dan (PC) 26,048 and Wischlar, Norm (SC) 1,159. Meanwhile, in Wetaskiwin, another Progressive Conservative victory was registered as follows: Barnhill, Al (Liberal)

5,396; Goetz, Alvin, (SC) 2,678; Schellenberger, Stan (PC) 20,019 and Udenberg, Lionel (NDP) 4,162.

AROUND TOWN

The regular monthly meeting of the Father Lacombe Chapter, IOOE, was held October 24, 1972 at the home of Mrs. W. Scott, when Shirley McQuitty from the Women's Auxiliary of the Sturgeon General Hospital was the guest speaker. The next meeting will be Wednesday, November 15, at the home of Mrs. L. Vankestere.

Armyworm Spray Cuts Damage Cost

The cost of insecticides to control the betha armyworm outbreak in Alberta's rapeseed crops totalled $315,000, compared to $325,000 last year. Approximately 220,000 acres of rapeseed were sprayed during the month of August using 55,000 pounds of Lannate.

The Department of Agriculture estimates that less than three per cent of Alberta's total rapeseed acreage was destroyed. This year's low losses, in spite of the heavy worm infestations, are attributed to the fact everyone was prepared for the outbreak.

The DOOR is always OPEN!

The Workmen's Compensation Board wants to be sure that every injured workman protected by The Workmen's Compensation Act gets the full compensation he is entitled to receive.

It's not an easy task!

Compensation awards are based upon information supplied by the workman's doctor, his employer and the workman himself. Important details concerning an accident are sometimes overlooked and not included in the reports received by the Board. When this happens the chances of a satisfactory decision are reduced.

More than 50 years' experience with thousands of claims has made the Board keenly aware that important facts about an accident often come to light only when the decision concerning a claim is questioned. In some cases after-effects may develop from an injury which could justify further consideration by the Board.

To deal with these problems the Board provides assistance and advice on compensation matters for workmen and employers through its Claims Advisory Service.

The Claims Advisor makes frequent visits throughout Alberta where he is available for personal consultation with those who have questions concerning their claims. This service is especially useful for those who cannot present their cases in person at Head Office in Edmonton.

The Board's "Open Door Policy" exists to clear up misunderstandings which may arise. When a claim is not accepted the reasons for the decision are clearly stated and the workman is informed of his right to have his claim reviewed.

Take the RIGHT STEPS to have your claim reviewed...

Departmental Review

1 Anyone who is not satisfied with a decision concerning a claim should first advise the Claims Department, either in writing or in person, giving his reasons for disagreeing with the decision. Senior staff of the department will re-examine the claim giving careful consideration to any new information or evidence.

Board of Review

2 Should a thorough departmental review of a claim result in a decision that is unsatisfactory to the workman or employer, the next step is to request that it be placed before the Board of Review. Members of this Board are experienced senior staff who do not belong to the Claims Department and who have not been involved in any way with earlier decisions concerning the case or with the administration of the claim. The Board of Review may meet in various centres in the province when this is considered desirable. A request for consideration by the Board of Review should be made in writing, and should state the reasons for the request. A convenient form for this purpose may be obtained from the Workmen's Compensation Board.

Medical Examination

3 When the disagreement or problem is of a medical nature a written request may be made for an examination by independent medical practitioners as provided by Section 28 of The Workmen's Compensation Act.

Commissioners' Review

4 If disagreement still exists following consideration by the Board of Review or an independent medical examination, a review of the case by Commissioners of the Board may be requested in writing giving reasons for the request. A review by the Commissioners may take the form of a formal hearing.

Representation

5 Anyone requesting review of a claim may present his own case. He is also entitled to choose any other person to assist him or to act on his behalf at any stage of the review procedure. Such assistance may be provided, for example, by a union representative, a solicitor or a friend.

Auxiliary Bazaar reported best yet

Irene Cherkas, publicity officer for the Youville Home Auxiliary, said she believed the annual Bazaar and Tea held at the Home Sunday, was the most successful yet. "It seems to be getting more popular, and perhaps because we strive quality in all the items offered for sale. Especially from two - three-thirty, the auditorium was jammed with shoppers, who kept coming until 5.

The Auxiliary held weekly workshops making articles such as stuffed toys, crocheted dolls, doll clothes, aprons, knitted articles, cushions and many others. The Sisters also contribute many items and the patients work for it as well. Overseeing the bazaar was Pat Hamilton, vice-president.

For the second year Mr. Dubec's sketches, done for $1 on request, in a room upstairs were very popular, and these sales also go to the Auxiliary. There was a bake table and a candy table as well, both of which were very popular.

The Tea Room was also crowded to capacity and convenor Sadie Ross was kept busy finding places for people. An attractive flower and table arrangement centered the serving table, and delicious fancy sandwiches and cakes, with tea, coffee and fruit juice were the fare. Many people from the Sturgeon district attended along with the town folk.

K-Days promotion goes well in Holland

Pete Kostyniuk, well known personality around town, reports a great trip to Europe with his former neighbors, the Brothers Boogad. The four-piece band actually are four brothers and when invited to represent the Klondike Association and promote K-days in Holland, they asked Pete to come along with the troupe, six dancers, Elsie McNeil as Klondike Kate, plus fans and association people made up a group of 35, who staged three shows in Amsterdam and one in Dun Higue.

Two of the Amsterdam shows were held at the Florad garden show in Amsterdam - "an ideal setting," said Pete, "and the response of the people was just great." Due to rainy weather the third show moved under a canopy in the town square, but despite space restriction, Pete thought this might have been the best of the shows.

In Dun Higue they had the pleasant duty of presenting the Mayor who is an Uncle of the Boogad Brothers, with a handsome plaque, gift of Edmonton's Mayor Dent.

Following their official duties the group took a holiday and visited points in Belgium, France and Germany. Originally Pete was to have had a comedy skit to go with the show, but his job took him up north and time didn't allow preparation and rehearsal, so Pete was put to good use keeping track of the equipment. It may be they will be going again in which case he will be able to include his skit - starting the basic "Tumble Weed" costume, and routines he is already known for at K-Days time.

Leningrad's Palace of Weddings operates 10 hours a day, seven days a week and charges $1.65 for the eight-minute ceremony.

IN MEMORIAM

HIMSICK - In loving memory of Danny who passed away November 3, 1968.

Some day we hope to meet again

Some day we know not when

To clasp his hand in the better land

Never to part again.

His charming ways and smiling face are a pleasure to recall.

He had a kindly word for each

And died beloved of all.

Councillor Deedman elected B.A. Mayor

The regular monthly meeting of the Bon Accord Village Council, held Monday, October 16 was brought to order at 7:30 p.m. in council chambers. Present were Mayor Brennan, councillors Deedman and Nicholson, secretary-treasurer Jenkins and the assistant Mrs. Jean Chubb.

An enquiry was made by a village resident about organizing an emergency first aid team and fire fighting squad. Council felt there was a lot of merit in these ideas and it was suggested the enquiry be referred to the Emergency Measures Coordinator.

The Village Office is now paid for in full and the secretary treasurer was authorized to have the transfer of title drawn up and registered.

The reorganization of council took place. Elected to office were: Mayor - Wm. H. Deedman; Deputy Mayor - Elmer Brennan; Committees - Public Works - Wm. H. Deedman and W. J. Nicholson. The following appointments were also made - Emergency Measures Coordinator and Pest Control Officer - F. W. Reynolds. Representative to Sturgeon Foundation - J. Pasemko.

Public meeting times will continue as before, that is the third Monday of each month at the Village Office, commencing at 7:30 p.m. Office hours will remain the same. Monday through Friday 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon, Saturday 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

Gibbons ratepayers meet with council on road matters

A number of ratepayers attended the regular meeting of Gibbons Council by appointment, for a discussion of lanes, roads and related affairs in their district.

They were informed by council that as much work as possible will be done in these areas, depending on present work progress and the weather.

Very little work has been done by the village lawyers as yet about the land for the new lagoon system. Councilors will check checking with them to hurry things up if possible.

Continuation of the water and sewer extension will continue as soon as a proper cage can be built to work in. Council members are trying to get more help for this project.

Councillor Smith was given permission to purchase 300 feet of snow fence to be used in some areas where snow drifting is a problem. Finalization of the annexation to the south has been received by the village office, the effective day being January 1st, 1973.

Villeneuve 4H start 11th year

By Janice Kremer
Villeneuve Clothing Club started its 11th year with its first meeting Wednesday, September 13, in the Villeneuve Hall. Elections were held and Patricia Sheehan was made president. Vice president was Kim Klatt, treasurer Michelle Gamler, and secretary Colleen Klak.

Many new members attended the meeting. The Clothing Club would like to welcome all old and new members for another year.

Harvest is Done

By Liz McLeod

Farmers in the district had a lot of headaches and breakdowns and unfavorable weather to cope with this fall before combining and baling was completed.

His even more frustrating when your health breaks down, but when Gordon Schermund was unable to finish his harvest due to ill health, his neighbors did what Gordon himself used to do when others were in need.

During combining when Roy Schermund got finished, his son Don and friend Bill Johnson just moved into the field and how nice it was with two combines, and trucks to hurry things along. Then when Henry Bergstrelser got finished two days hence he just came right into Gordon's field near sundown one evening so what a sight with three combines. Then the two trucks really had to put out. On the third day the three combines and three trucks, with Alice, Joyce and Liz driving, worked late but finished the crop.

Then there were bales and stacking to do. Mr. Carl Bergstrelser baled one field and Mr. Henry Bergstrelser came along and stacked it.

Gordon's sons Barry and Michael, now young men, capably handled baling sufficient straw plus one field of hay. Roy Schermund, Frank Kolesar and John Wietzel got part of the hay bales stacked and the next day Emelia was going to be real busy making meals for Frank Kolesar, Carl Bergstrelser, Marcel Kerchhof, Rudy Christen, Lloyd Bergstrelser, Pete McLeod, Roy and Don Schermund, Lloyd's wife Anita and Liz who together enjoyed the visit also, and with six tractors and 10 wagons handily finished the bales.

Really there is no more more appreciative than these fine neighbors and Gordon and Emelia and Barry and Michael thank everyone connected from the bottom of their hearts.

It really was a pleasure to be able to do a service to a friend in need. All we hope and pray is you get well soon Gordon. God bless you and your family.

Rural Recreation

By Carl Royan

Edith Kowalski whose picture appeared two weeks ago with the macrame display from "The Tie" asked me to clarify a point for her. The macrame in the background was not all her own work. It was work done by her and ladies from Bon Accord who participated in the class she instructed last year.

There will be Arts and Crafts classes starting in almost every centre very shortly so if you are interested in participating contact this office for details.

Marilyn Wylie has joined our staff under LIP and will be working with programs that are athletically oriented. One of the first tasks she is undertaking is to organize a basketball league for both men and women. She also wishes to establish golf lessons for the winter and establish a ski club. If you are interested in any of these activities or any others that are athletically oriented contact Marilyn at the office, 424-6276 or 256-3323.

The Community Leadership Workshop held at Camp He Ho Ha, October 20, 21 and 22 was a very successful endeavour by the Central West Recreation Administrators. A total of 140 people attended the workshop, and 29 of these people were sponsored by the MD of Sturgeon #90 Recreation Board. Leadership courses were offered in playschool, dressmaking, leathercraft, macrame, physical culture, hobbycrafts, and folk guitar. These courses along with Hunter Training, will be offered again on the weekend of November 17, 18 and 19, and will be a continuation of the program that was started in October.

The leaders that will have taken these courses will then be qualified to instruct courses within the MD of Sturgeon #90.

Calahoo WI hears nurse - Sturgeon Health Unit

By Liz McLeod

Thirteen members and five visitors, Chris Zacharias, Clara Loyer, Aline Roddick, Joyce Bergstrom and Mrs. Pat Mah, attended the Oct. 23 meeting of Calahoo WI at Mrs. Carthy's home.

Madeline Brown and Edna Gosselle were not able to attend the jovial evening where for a change, everything was done backwards. How uncomfortable were our dresses worn back to front. Cecile even got her shoes on opposite feet. We backed in the door and said, Bye. Cakes were peach and pineapple upside down cakes and sandwiches were openface. Usually have the business first, so it was left for the end, and the guest speaker, Pat Mah, health nurse, was introduced. Her topic was,

Vimy Needles News

The Vimy 4H Needles held their first sewing meeting on Sept. 30 in the Vimy School at 1:30 p.m. Eighteen members were present. The meeting was opened by the singing of O Canada. The pledge was led by Beverly Brown and Cecilia Montpetit. Roll call was answered with: "What I hope to gain through 4H this year."

It was announced that new members are welcome to join the club and the deadline is on Nov. 20th.

For our next meeting we will hear speeches from the Hardening of the Arteries and Affects of Diet Pills. So many ailments stem from hardening of the arteries, age, heredity, smoking and improper dieting are all factors.

Possibly the key to good health would be proper foods, fresh air and exercise and good posture, with a diet high in protein and low in fats.

There will be a meeting sponsored by an Edmonton Branch in MacDougall United Church on Nov. 8 with United Nations the topic and Mr. Elmer Roper (former Edmonton mayor) the speaker. Everyone is welcome to attend that afternoon.

Mary Dalheim, Madeline Brown and Liz McLeod attended the handicraft tea at Winterburn Hall, Oct. 18 and saw Wabamun WI win the plaque and first prize, following: Lorraine Parrent who will talk on Club Week at Olds, Lucille de Champlain and Jacqueline Blanchette, who will talk at Camp He Ho Ha and Jocelyne de Champlain, who will give a talk on Youth seminar.

We will be given a demonstration on how to make a laundry bag by our leader, Mrs. E. Brown. Beverly Brown will also give a demonstration on making a mobile.

Following adjournment, the members broke into groups and continued working on projects.

Stony Plain was a close second and Winterburn a close third. The work was excellent and the basket weaving, especially the clothes hamper was fantastic.

Betty Albrecht was using crutches after a fall when the wagon load tipped while stacking hay. Her whole right side is injured, and after a week the doctors finally x-rayed her foot, only to find two broken bones in the heel and one in the foot. She now is in a cast, and can manage better.

Two week old Shaun Kevin Dalheim was the centre attraction and his proud grandmother Mary Dalheim presented Emma with a gift from the WI, a teddy bear designed baby blanket.

The Adelaide Hoodless Homestead slides were enjoyed. Former member Mrs. Henry Bergstrom brought her projector and also showed slides she'd taken of a conference hosted in 1968 where members dressed characters from books she had also slides of the 10th anniversary dinner in 1969.

On Nellie Wiltson's suggestion members measured waistlines, together with three gentlemen who were willing to help boost the office fund. They produced $5.60 at a penny an inch, mind this was measured overtop of clothing, but sure caused much amusement. Roll call was busy and wear a poppy.

Barry - Houle Wedding

By Rose Martel

St. John the Baptist R.C. Church in Morinville was the scene of a lovely fall evening wedding, on Oct. 21st, when Miss Lucille Houle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hector Houle of Morinville, and Mr. William Barry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Barry of Legal were united in marriage, by Rev. Father Georges Primeau, conducting the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a long white gown of nylon over satin, in princess lines, featuring mandarin collar, long cuffed nylon sleeves, and a back train. Long panels of white lace added elegance to the gown. Her shoulder length net bouffant veil was held by a tiara, and she carried a nosegay bouquet of red sweetheart roses and white baby mums.

Her two attendants were her sister, Angeline Houle and Marguerite Imeson, niece of the groom from Edmonton. Both wore identical gowns of pink-sparkled nylon over satin, styled on princess lines and featuring white lace trim, high mandarin collars and long cuffed nylon sleeves, complimented by white accessories. Each carried nosegay bouquets of white mums and pink sweetheart roses.

Best man was Dale Barry, cousin of the groom, of Edmonton, and Bernard Houle, brother of the bride from Morinville, was groomsmen. During the nuptial mass, Carmen Boissonnault was organist and Irma Bulger the soloist.

Following the ceremony a reception for 350 guests was held in Morinville Centre, followed by a dance. Wilfrid Barry Jr. was master of ceremonies and proposed the toast to the bride.

To receive their guests, Mrs. Houle, mother of the bride, wore a blue fantasy crepe dress and coat ensemble with black accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Houle, with their attendants, Mr. Arcade Ethier and Mrs. Ethier (nee Melina Dupuis), on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. & Mrs. Louis Houle Celebrate Golden Wedding

By Rose Martel

Fifty years ago, on October 11th, 1922, St. John the Baptist R.C. Church was the scene of a pretty double wedding, when four young people from the district were married in a double ring ceremony, performed by the late Monsigneur Maxime Pilon. Married that day were Florida Lafond, and Louis Houle and Eva Houle and Ulderich Franche, all children of pioneer families of Morinville and St. Albert districts.

On October 7 of this year the newlyweds of 50 years ago, celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary, with separate family gatherings, due to the large number involved.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Houle of Morinville celebrated the occasion with an Anniversary Mass in St. Albert, celebrated by Rev. Father Colin Levangie. Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Arcade Ethier of Morinville. An evening gathering followed in St. Albert Parish Hall with children and grandchildren present.

Mrs. Houle looked charming in a gold brocade dress with yellow roses on corsage, and her attendant Mrs. Melina (Dupuis) Ethier was lovely in a marine blue crepe and lace ensemble, with pink corsage.

Mr. Albert Cherot was master of ceremonies for the reception and dance. Among the presentations to the happy pair, were a purse presented by grand-daughters, Mrs. Joanne Herube and Lucille Flemming and a guest book by granddaughter Mrs. Laura Make of Legal.

A toast to the couple was proposed by their grandson, Mr. Emile Houle. Before the midnight buffet supper grace was led by another granddaughter, Cecile Munroe of St. Albert.

Mr. Arcade Ethier, a life long friend of the couple, spoke on behalf of all relatives and friends gathered for the happy occasion, and recalled many family parties and reminiscences of their young days. With humor he recalled many happy happenings of long ago, reliving memories for the older folks and delighting the younger people.

Messages of congratulations were read from Prime Minister Trudeau, Lt. Governor J. W. Grant MacEwan, Premier Peter Lougheed, Mr. Marcel Lambert MP and Mayor Ray Gibbon on behalf of the Town of St. Albert, where Mr. and Mrs. Louis Houle resided for 32 years.

Later in the evening, many relatives and friends who had attended the Golden Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ulderich Franche in Morinville, on the same evening, joined the group in St. Albert, which the celebrants greatly appreciate.

Mr. Louis Houle was born in Morinville the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Houle, and Mrs. Houle was the daughter of another pioneer couple, the late Mr. and Mrs. Moise Lafond. After their wedding they established themselves on a farm three miles west of Morinville (presently farmed by Leon Bolissonault) and raised a family of five children over the next 17 years.

In 1939 Mr. and Mrs. Houle moved to St. Albert, where they resided until August, 1972, when they came back to Morinville to retire. Their union was blessed by six children: Albert, Edmonton; Mrs. Ida LaBarr, St. Albert, who passed away in October, 1971; Mrs. Albertine Munroe and Mrs. Jeanne Vallant, St. Albert; Philippe of Edmonton who was unable to be present and a daughter Laura, who died in infancy.

Beside four children present, with their respective spouses, there were 15 grandchildren and four great grandchildren. Now retired, the couple still enjoy their hobbies. Mr. Houle, a carpenter by trade likes tinkering with wood and paint. Curtailed by failing health from many activities, Mrs. Houle's favorite pastime is crocheting and making feather flowers. She is always ready for a card game and an active member of the Morinville Senior Citizens Rendez-Vous Club.

Among those out of town guests were relatives and friends from Edmonton, Coronado, Legal, Morinville, St. Albert. The entire community wishes for both couples, the Houles of Morinville and Franches of St. Albert, many more bright happy and sunny days, in the twilight of their golden years, and offers congratulations on this double golden wedding celebration.
